The meeting was called to order by J. A. Leslie, who presided over the corn exhibit. An introductory speech was made by Frank H. Moss, of Burke's Garden.

In the afternoon an enthusiastic good roads meeting was held in the courthouse, and several fine addresses were made. Frank H. Moss, of Burke's Garden, was elected president. Addresses were made by Frank H. Moss, E. L. Greer, George W. St. Clair and W. S. Worts.

The following committees were appointed by the club to ascertain in the respective magisterial districts where the proposed new roads will be built, when the bond issue, which is being raised by the club for half a million dollars, will be submitted:

Wilson Springs District, J. G. Burns, S. L. West and Mr. Gillespie; Jeffersonville, W. H. Moore, James Ed. Ferry and James P. Whitman; Cleat Fork, William Prout, S. S. Bowen, J. Walter Graybeal.
